RE: United States v. Amjad Qayyem
Dkt. No. 21 CR 387 (JPC)

Dear Judge Cronan:

I am the attorney for Amjad Qayyem and submit this letter request for early termination of Supervised Release.

Mr. Qayyem's case originated out of the Eastern District of Virginia (United States v. Amjad Qayyem, Dkt. No. 99 CR 116) and was transferred on June 11, 2021, to this district for monitoring of Supervised Release. Mr. Qayyem resides in upper Manhattan, where he also lived prior to incarceration.

Mr. Qayyem has been on Supervised Release since October 15, 2018, and his termination date is October 14, 2023. I have spoken to Mr. Qayyem's USPO Sonales Gonzalez and am informed that my client has been fully compliant with all conditions of his release for the nearly four years of supervision, which includes no new arrests and no positive tests for illegal substances. He has paid the special assessment and there are fines, restitution, or forfeiture. He has used the time on Supervised Release to better himself including maintaining gainful employment.

It is Mr. Qayyem's hope to travel and move on with the next chapter in his life.

The probation department does not object to this request for early termination. Because the original AUSA in Virginia is no longer working for the government, this case is a transfer, and no issues have arisen on supervised release since the transfer (or at anytime) there is no AUSA assigned.

Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Glenn A. Garber
